Yost Convinced of His Team's Loyalty

CHICAGO, Nov. 22 (By The Associated Press). - Loyalty of football players to their coach usually is expressed in victories on the gridiron. Fielding H. Yost, veteran mentor at the University of Michigan, knows his players have an additional way of expressing their loyalty besides winning games.

The Wolverine coach nursed a body that was black and blue from the waist up for a week after the Michigan-Ohio game, due to "expressions" of loyalty from his players, according to a story revealed by Yost's admirera here to-night. The desire of the Wolverines to win that particular game was so intense that during the period of practice Yost received no less than Cortlandt course, while the freshmen will circle it only ence.

The start will be near the north end of the polo field, the course continuing for about three-tighths of a mile in a straight line over this field. Then there is a sharp turn to the right and the runners will parallel Broadway, then back to a point near the starting line and on to Mosholu Avenue, which will give the harriers a test over tarvia roads.

The nominating committee is composed of Mrs. Lester Ketchem, chairman; Mrs. Jay Lee, Mrs. A. C. Sumner, Mrs. Norman George and Mrs. F. E. Duboise. Those named for office will be placed for election before the next annual meeting of the association, which will be held at the Hotel Biltimore on December 8.

Yankees Will Again Cut Spring | Lafayette Players Training Capers at N'Orleans

Intricate Details Attended To and American League Champions Will Take Possession of Pelican Park About March 10; Tour With Dodgers Likely

By John Kieran

Through the deep-eyed machinations of Alexander Julius Heinemann, Keeper of the Peerless Pelicans, of the Crescent City, the Yankees have been inveigled into scheduling a four-weeks' stay in New Orleans this coming spring, where they will put on their all-star training show, including "Babe" Ruth and twenty-four other good acts.
